AN EVENING WITH KEN COSTA – RESPONDING TO THE GLOBAL CRISIS

“if the Christian faith is not relevant in the workplace, it is not relevant at all”

Ken Costa has worked in investment banking in the City of London for over thirty years, and was named as the Chairman of Lazard International in October 2007. Mr. Costa is the Chairman of both Alpha International and the Tick Tock Club appeal on behalf of Great Ormond Street Hospital. He is also a Trustee of the UK arm of the Nelson Mandela Children’s Fund. He and his wife, Fi, live in London with their two sons and two daughters.

Come and be inspired by how Ken Costa’s faith has helped him in the world of banking for over thirty years.

Following the success of his book ‘God At Work’, launched in 2007, he is now launching the ‘God at Work Course’ to equip Christians to find purpose in their every day work, and to live it out effectively.

WHAT IS THE GOD AT WORK COURSE?

A course for small or mid-sized groups, which can be run in either church groups or workplace fellowships.

This course is based on Ken Costa’s book, ‘God at Work’, and aims to equip Christians to find purpose in every aspect of their working life and to empower them to live this out with the utmost integrity. The course provides a Christian perspective on how to approach common issues familiar to many such as:

- Purpose at Work
- Work–Life Balance
- Failure & Hope
- Ambition & Life Choices
- Stress
- How to Make Tough Decisions

The 6 week course is interactive, containing teaching slots, individual and group exercises and discussion with other guests where experiences can be shared.
